Creative days

Bread Making with 'Somewhere Else'

Friday, 20 April | 10:00am – 4:00pm

Bread making session with the story of the Bread church. Somewhere Else is the Methodist Church in Liverpool's City Centre, they gather as a faith community around the making and sharing of bread.

Their minister, Rev Ian Hu, will lead a bread making session and also share the story of being 'bread church' Places will be limited to 8 and advance booking is essential

Pray as you Paint

Friday, 18 May | 10:00am – 4:00pm

A day of learning to prayerfully express yourself with paint. No previous painting experience needed as materials will be provided and some tuition will be given on the day. We will explore a gospel story, spending time together in discussion and working/painting/praying alone. No masterpieces expected, just a fresh engagement with God.

Henry Martin is a local Artist, his work can be seen at henrymartinpaintings.com

Day Retreats

A Day Set Apart

Friday, 4 May | 10:30am – 3:30pm

A day to reflect on life and be with God as you pray using Scripture

Sr Mary Galvin is an FCJ sister and a spiritual director

Retreat day - Walking with Jesus

Wednesday, 6 June | 10:30am - 3:30pm

The disciples took a walk to Emmaus, not knowing Jesus was with them. Where have you been waking with Jesus recently and what do you want to say to each other?

Take some time out to imagine and reflect.

Marie Pattison, director Katherine House

"My Father goes on working and so do I"

Monday, 9 July 2018 | 10:30am – 3:30pm

"My Father goes on working and so do I" are words of Jesus from John 5:17. Take a quiet day to let the Holy Spirit pray in you, deepening your trust and confidence that God is present and active in every moment of your life - lovingly, patiently, powerfully.

Sr Rachel Duffy FCJ
