General Information for House Events

We are happy to welcome you to Katherine House.

Half an hour before the start of an event we will have coffee brewing and you can help yourself to tea, coffee and biscuits.

For day events, please bring a packed lunch and eat together in our dining room.

The suggested donation for attending an event is usually £5 (for morning/afternoon/evening sessions) or £15 (all-day).

Cost should not stop you attending - please give what you can afford.

Please book in advance. We need to know people are going to come before we ask a facilitator to travel to the house, and we need to know numbers so we can prepare for you. This also means you avoid disappointment if an event is full, and it ensures we have your details should an event need to be cancelled for any reason. If there are no bookings, an event will not go ahead. You are welcome to ring on the day to see if a late booking is possible, but we can't guarantee it.

To book you can email khousefcj@hotmail.com or telephone us on 0161-708 9744 or text 07428481494 giving your name and a contact number. Or use the form on our website www.katherinehouse.org, which also gives updated programme details.

This season I'm excited to have two creative days for you:

We will be Bread Making with Rev Ian Hu from Somewhere Else, Liverpool City Centre Methodist Church. Come along and get your hands in some dough and take home a loaf or two.

We also have a Pray as you Paint day with local artist Henry Martin. I'm informed I don't have to be great at painting to engage in this so I'm prepared to enjoy it.

I'm delighted to have John Vernon back at the house with a two part series exploring 'How do I know the right thing to do?' Many of you enjoyed John's series on the existence of God and before that on the Old Testament. So if you know nothing about ethics or a lot about ethics come and explore the ideas.

Bible Study on the third Thursday of the month carries on looking at Isaiah for the first half of the year. And for July, join me looking at lost things in Luke 15

Come along to some of our regular groups. It's always great to discuss the films afterwards with other people who make you think about you've seen. Book club could welcome extra people sharing in discussion about poetry and prose. Our Holy Conversations group always inspires me and may inspire you too.

Hope to see you this summer Marie
